

SUNDAY RIVER MAINE
March 7 -12, 2010
CAPTAINS
KAREN GUIDI & RITA METZGAR

The date is set, the snow ordered, now all we need is for March to get here.

This will be the 17th year our ski club has offered this amazingly affordable ski week ($405/$385). It is by far the BEST DEAL for your hard earned money. Here are some of the highlights: there are 8 peaks to ski which covers all shades of green to all shades of black and everything in between. There are major moguls, tree runs that are spaced wide and those that are tight, some nice wide cruising runs that you can do all day and for those just starting out, enough easy green runs to keep you occupied for the week. Your lift ticket is good for 5 1/2 days of skiing, the half day being Sunday after noon. Ski lessons are available FOR FREE each day for all levels of skier. The only thing we ask is that if you take a lesson, please tip your instructor. After a day of skiing you can have a nice cold drink and appetizers at the many bars on the mountain or just go back to your condo, change into a swim suit and get into the heated pool for some quiet relaxation.

There will be two parties, the first given to us by the mountain. That party has always been a wonderful time to see who is on the trip and to make plans to get together for skiing with people you don't see very often. There is also a raffle of Sunday River money that can pay for drinks or lunch and possibly be used toward dinner or a new T-shirt from the gift shop. Last year the appetizers were outstanding and probably one of the best social events we've had there. Each year they out do themselves and I expect this year will be no different. Mid week your captains will host a party and this year we plan on doing desserts just to do something different.

This is a drive up to Maine trip, there are no busses. You will be staying 4 to a condo, slope side and steps from the runs. All the essentials are provided and the kitchens have the basic stuff you need. If you think you need something special to cook with, you can bring it from home. There's no extra charge for extra luggage.

The cost this year is $405 for adults and $385 for juniors and seniors, same price as last year. A $50 deposit is requested to hold a space for you. If you know who you want as condo mates, please specify that when you sign up. Please make your check for your deposit and/or full payment payable to Karen Guidi and send it to her at: Karen Guidi @ 1276 St. Georges Road, Rahway NJ 07065.

You can also contact us at meetings or email @ Karenkip@aol.com and ritametzgar@live.com

*The cost of this trip is about the same as a deposit for a trip out west
